

VYWS, College of Social Work, Badnera Amravati
Program outcomes- MSW (Post Graduation)

1. Students could acquire history and development of professional social work.
2. Students could understand the methods of social work and application process with various systems of social work.
3. Students could develop various professional skills for the social work profession as well as personal skills.
4. Students could apply and perform various roles of social work with individuals, groups, community and other social systems.
5. Student could understand and apply the process of social methods and techniques as well as other supportive domain subject knowledge to understand and solve the problems of various target groups.
6. Students have demonstrated the ability to apply the knowledge, values, and skills of generalist social work practice necessary for initial professional social work practice with all client systems.
7. Students have demonstrated necessary knowledge to understand the development of social services and the skills to analyze, formulate, and influence social policy.
8. Students could develop their research skills through various survey and research project.
9. Students have demonstrated the knowledge, values, and skills necessary for understanding forms and mechanisms of oppression and discrimination and apply various strategies of social work and social justice.
10. Students have demonstrated knowledge and values to understood and appreciate human differences both as a source of strength and a basis for discrimination; students have practice without discrimination and with respect, knowledge, and skills related to clients' age, class, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, family structure, gender, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, and sexual orientation.
11. Students have demonstrated the ability to practice according to the value base of the profession and its ethical standards and principles.
12. Students have demonstrated the ability to use communication skills differentially across client populations, colleagues, and communities.

13. Students have demonstrated skills and tasks related to administration like planning, organizing, staffing, direction, and coordination, report writing, budgeting and also developed the professional attitude required in professional social work.
14. Students have demonstrated the ability to function within the structure of agency, organization and service delivery system and seek necessary organizational change.
15. Students have demonstrated the ability to integrate the theory and practice of social work.
16. Students have demonstrated the ability to understand and interpret both the history of the profession and social welfare system as part of the context for their practice.
17. Students have demonstrated personal as well as professional development through the social work practicum and co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

R. S. Thakur
(IQAC Coordinator)

Dr. D. H. Kale

Principal
प्राचार्य

समाजकार्य महाविद्यालय
अंजनगांव बारी रोड वडनेरा