

College of Social Work, Anjangaon Bari Road, Badnera, Amravati

Distinctiveness of Institution

7.3

Most of our college students belong to rural areas of district because there is only one social work college in district. Around 60% of student's are Girl. College has 26 seater traveler bus for field work activity and made it available in minimum cost for students for to and fro regularly. Most of the bus facility beneficiaries are girl students. College motivate, help students in avail various students welfare schemes run by university and other agencies. Library department of college initiated various activities like best reader award, top ten users, Book exhibition to promote reading habit among student. Our college ex. Students are working in private sector, GO/NGO's working on various issues some of them renders their service as a subject expert for seminar field work activity.

Or students social engineer in true sense, They are now working in various sectores & give their services for social cause. They are professors, Class one & Class two officers working in social welfare, woment and child development & almost all the public welfare departments. College provide guidance & counseling as well as information related to various job opportunities to our students & alumni. Students are envolved in various community development activity during their college other than prescribed field work & syllabus

Principal
College of Social Work
Anjangaon Bari Road, Badnera